OverLight

Presented in four cities in 2004, the OverLight Training is a six day experience and includes one day of group experience to a high energy place in each local area. With each topic covered, participants will be given a chance to apply the information in a real setting as the facilitator, the client and a neutral bystander. This is a very interactive training. With help from the Group we will give you tools to help you rely on your own inner guidance and intuition.

Topics include:

Energy Matrix Energy Stamps and the 12 Primary Life Lessons

The 12 Primary Life Lessons ~ What they are and how each one works

The Process of Mastery.

The 12 Paradigms for Facilitation on the New Earth

The Seven Stages of Life

This is the first in the OverLight series of training for facilitators working in the higher vibrations of evolved humans. This is designed to support those interested in personal healing as well as those who heal with their words. This is for those interested in self healing, and for facilitators such as Counselors, Psychologists, Therapists, Mentors, Readers, Teachers, Spiritual Counselors and anyone who works primarily with their words. OverLight is designed to give facilitators and clients a larger perspective from which to view life. By helping to identify the primary life lessons that you came in to work with, real, lasting change can begin. Upon identifying life lessons people begin to see the patterns that have laced through their lives. By seeing and understanding these patterns and the reason for them, you or your clients can then see how to begin to change those patterns and create a reality of your own design.

In this training you will:

* Learn the difference between an Energy Matrix and an Energy Stamp: How one can be healed and the other can only be mastered, and why we spend so much time with illnesses that won't heal.

* Identify life lessons and the catalyst you have chosen for for each one. Once we begin to master a life lesson we can reassign the role of the catalyst. How this affects the family structure and the way we perceive ourselves.

* Learn powerful techniques to re-write energy stamps and change cellular memories from this as well as past lives.

Each day will provide interactions and exercises to put these into practical use in your life and/or in your healing modality. Intensive hands-on emotional, mental & spiritual healing techniques are given in a safe environment where each one will have opportunities to try these techniques out personally. Certification of the Spiritual Psychology of OverLight is given upon completion of this training. Each applicant will receive a certificate suitable for framing showing completion and naming them as an Intuitive Spiritual Counselor.
