Those interested in changing their lives or in helping others to change theirs will find the OverLight process refreshing, insightful and inspiring. The paradigm for healing has changed and the old ways are losing effectiveness as human evolve into higher vibration al status. How do you help people to help themselves without taking their power from them? Helping people to move past guilt, look at themselves honestly without judgment and step into empowerment and create a life of their choosing is what the Foundation Modality offers. The OverLight process will be invaluable to anyone who helps people with their words. In this training we will give you the tools that the Group gave for spiritual counseling to be an "Empowerment Catalyst."

Six day experience with five days of intensive training on the OverLight material with one day of spiritual experience mid-week.

Use it to change your life and then as a catalyst to empower others

A certificate naming you as an OverLight Spiritual Couinselor will be awarded upon completion of the Spiritual Psychology training.

Treat each other with respect,
nurture one another
